

Puss In The Corner Baby Quilt

Approximate size: 41" x 50"

Fabric Requirements:

Gray: 1/2 yard

Tan: 1/2 yard

Yellow: 1 yard

Inner border (gray): 3/8 yard

Outer border (yellow): 1/2 yard

Binding (yellow) : 1/2 yard

Note: if you use the same fabric for the outer border and binding, you will only need a total of 3/4 yard.

Cutting:

From gray cut: (2) 3-1/2" strips; sub-cut into (20) 3-1/2" squares
(4) 2" strips; sub-cut into (80) 2" squares

From tan cut: (4) 3-1/2" strips; sub-cut into (80) 3-1/2" x 2" rectangles

From yellow cut: (2) 6-1/2" strips; sub-cut into (12) 6-1/2" squares
(1) 5-1/4" strip; sub-cut into (2) 5-1/4" squares. Cut each of these squares once on the diagonal.
(1) 9-3/4" strip; sub-cut into (4) 9-3/4" squares. Cut each of these squares twice on the diagonal

Inner border cut: (5) 2" strips

Outer border cut: (5) 2-1/2" strips

Piecing:

I know these blocks could be strip pieced, but since there are only 20 of them, I found it almost as fast to piece them individually. I'm also realizing that I don't like to strip piece as much as I used to.

Using (80) gray 2" squares and (40) tan 2" x 3-1/2 rectangles, piece 40 units that look like this:

Press seams toward the gray

Using (20) gray 3-1/2" squares and (40) tan 2" x 3-1/2 rectangles, piece 20 units that look like this:

Press seams toward the gray

Using the units from the previous steps, piece 20 blocks that look like this:

Press the seams to one side. In this step, it doesn't matter which way you press them because they don't nest with any other seams.

Follow the diagram below, piece quilt in diagonal rows..

Trim edges of quilts even. Sew inner border strips together. Measure length of quilt through center and cut two border strips to this measurement. Sew to sides of quilt. Press seam out toward the border. Measure width of quilt through center and cut two border strips to this measurement. Sew to top and bottom of quilt. Press seams out toward the border.

Repeat the previous step for the outer border.

Quilt as desired (I quilted straight lines, spacing them in random widths), bind and enjoy!

Finished Puss In the Corner Baby Quilt

I used soft, time-worn colors because the quilt was based on a vintage baby quilt I saw on Ebay.
